Henke, who is not a member of the club, but who was asked to investigate its membership drive, and who is alleged to have arraigned the management of the club in the most scathing terms. This report is said to have been in the hands of every member of the griev-sace committee since March 15, and, according to the complainants, sub-stantiates every charge they have made. Mr. Carstarphan is anxious to get a copy of this report from some member of the committee, the chairman of which is Martin Vogel, former As-sistant United States Treasurer.

Charge Destruction of Records

Destruction of records and accounts of the club, to cover larcenies and forgeries, is said to have been alleged forgeries, is said to have been alleged by Captain Barcas and Comander De-lany in their conference with the Dis-trict Attorney. One former member of the club, who acted in an executive capacity, is said to have been accused of falsifying vouchers so as to pocket amounts of money due merchants and tradesmen. Another charge is that a man expelled many years ago for ir-regularities got back into the club dur-ing a membership drive which brought into the club 1,200 new members, pay-ing $24,000 in dues, at a cost of $34,000. into the club 1,200 new members, paying $24,000 in dues, at a cost of $34,000. This man, it is alleged, was later discovered never to have been in the service of the United States.

Other accusations, it is said, deal with alleged maitreatment of photographs and last letters of officers who died on the battlefield, and which were sent to the club by relatives in consent to the club by relatives in con-
